Companies with Safety Council membership of at least 12 months are invited to submit nominations for the Company Safety Achievement Award. This award recognizes the companies that have had no fatalities and have shown the most improvement in reportable nonfatal occupational injury and illness incidence rates for their given industry in California over the reporting period specified below. Rates for the most recent year in which statistics are available as of January 2012 must be at least 10% below the applicable industry average in California for that year.
